

The image shows two pages from a handwritten musical score in a notebook. The left page (page 35) contains five staves of music for a single melodic line, likely for a bowed instrument like cello or violin. The notation uses vertical strokes on horizontal lines, with some horizontal strokes indicating sustained notes. The right page (page 36) continues the score with five more staves, featuring a mix of vertical and horizontal strokes. Both pages include lyrics written above the staves in a cursive script. The handwriting is in black ink on aged, yellowish paper.
