Handwritten musical notation on a single staff. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and decorative flourishes. The music is written in a style characteristic of 18th or 19th-century manuscript notation, with some notes beamed together and others written as single stems. The staff is a single line, and the notes are written in black ink.

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, featuring various notes, rests, and a double bar line. The notation is in a traditional style, possibly representing a specific musical piece or exercise.
