Handwritten musical score for a traditional Kazakh instrument, likely a bowed string instrument like the dombra or zhengen. The score consists of ten staves of music with lyrics written in both Kazakh and Latin script below each note. The lyrics describe a scene of a woman singing to a man who has come to her door. The music is in common time, mostly in G major, with some sharps and flats. The vocal part is accompanied by a piano-like part on the right side of the page.

Below the score, there is a short note in Persian:
